INTERESTING LETTER WRITTEN BY MAXI-MILIAN UUST BEFORE HIS DEATH.-The following letter was written by Maximilian two days before his execution Queretaro, Prison of Las Capuchinas, 17th of June, 1867 .- Dear Baron Lago, Minister of Austria to Mexico: I am done with this world; my very last wishes are in regard only to my mortal remains, which will soon be freed from all pain, and in regard to those who must survive me. My physician, Dr. Basch, will have my body brought to Vera Cruz. He will be accompanied only by my two servants, Gull and Tudos. I have ordered that my body be transported without any pomp or solemnity to Vera Cruz, and that on board the vessel that is to bring it to Europe no unusual ceremony take place. I have awaited death calmly, and 1 wish to be left in the same stillness while in my coffin. You will take measures, my dear Baron, so that Dr. Basch and my two servants. who take my body in care, may accompany it to Europe on one of the two war vessels. Over there I wish to be buried beside my poor wife. If the news of my poor's wife's death should not prove true, my body should be placed somewhere until the Empress rejoin me in death .-Have the goodness to see that the necessary orders be forwarded to Capt. Groeller. Have also the goodness to take measures so fillment of this request, as she is charged by me to remain with my mother at Vienna. I again thank you from my heart for the trouble which you take on my account, and I remain your well-wishing, MAXIMILIAN.

THE LATEST HORROR.—The atrocity of the Coriell murder in New Jersey has been surpassed by a horrible affair at the market town of Alton, in Hampshire, England. On the afternoon of the 24th of August some children were playing in a meadow just outside the town, when a strange man beckoned to one of them, a child of eight years, named Fanny Adams, and coaxed her, by a present of a half-penny, to go with him into a neighboring hop-garden. She was never seen again alive. The same evening a laborer going home from work found in the hop-garden a dissevered head resting upon two hop-poles at the foot of a hedge. He ran with it to the cottage of the Adams family, and it was immediately recognized as the head of the missing girl. The whole population now turned out to search the neighboring fields. A leg and foot were found in one mutilated trunk, full of stabs and gashes, a part | bestowed. of an arm, the heart and intestines, and the tattered remnants of clothes were picked up scattered over long distances. The eyes had been gouged out, the ears cut off, and the flesh of the legs and thighs ripped open to the bone. A young man named Baker—a fellow of indifferent character-was arrested on suspicion, and traces of blood were found on his clothes, while in his diary was this entry, in a bold and unfaltering hand: Saturday, August 24, killed a young girl; fine and hot." A coroner's jury found him guilty, and he was held for trial. So the case rests. Motives for the crime can only be conjectured, and the shockingly mutilated state of the remains makes it impossible to ascertain what degree of violence may have preceded the murder. dence against the prisoner seems strong. The chief point in his favor is the difficulty of imagining how any body but a raving maniac-and he is certainly not that -could commit such

Lewis Miller emigrated from Europe to New Orleans, recently, contrary to the wishes of his wife, bringing with them six children. The epidemic made its appearance in the family a few days ago. The disease attacked his wife and five children, and all in rotation succumbed to the fell destroyer. One of the children still remains.

The cable steamer Maria sailed from Key West yesterday, for New York, with mails .-Her chief engineer, Mark Turner, died of yellow fever on the 14th. Mr. Medley, an electrician of the cable, is dangerously ill. The yellow fever is abating at Tortugas, and all the officers are out of danger.

The Union Pacific railroad is now finished 460 miles west of Omaha, within 50 miles of the station just occupied by the government, which carries the track 270 miles west of the Missonri river. Cheyenne city. The Kansas branch of the Pa-Missouri river.

It is said that Gen. Hancock will at once during the prevalence of the sickly season. In response to a recent letter rquesting information as to which of the two issues of $5 national bank notes is genuine, one being less distinct than the other, Gen. Spinner has replied that probably both are good. The indis-finct one is the earlier issue. The commissoners appointed by the Legislatures of Maryland and Virginia to adjust and mark the Eastern Shore boundary between the two States, met at Newtown, Md., on the 9th last. The entire board were present. The five hundred thousand dollars seized in Holland, under the supposition that they were counterfeit U. S. notes, have been found to be only Confederate bonds.

A contract has been made in Philadelphia for five hundred dozen reed birds for Chicago, where they will be canned for winter's use. Women suffrage meetings are now held in all parts of Kansas. The question is to be submitted. The anthracite coal trade from the Schuylkill region is improving a little,
